“ Oh Amber! Since the day I first met you, we instantly clicked. You were always smiling, laughing and everyone around you couldn't help but do the same. You had such a presence that drew everyone to you. Our band days were always a fun time, especially in high school. I can't believe this is even real. I pray for your family. Fly high sweet girl. ❤️

“ Amber and Cassidy, you ran with me in my first Couch to 5K (C25K) in late 2017, and you were my local Ohio State friend. It was a joy to run with you, Buckeye, especially in our Buckeye cold weather attire. You will be sorely missed!

“ Troy and Lisa I'm so sorry. My heart and prayers goes out to Amber's family. The last time Barry was in the hospital she really tried to think of stuff that would be healthy for him to eat. We came to a dead end because Barry didn't want anything that was good for him. We really had a nice visit with her that day. I will always remember her long red hair when she was a little girl running and her hair blowing in the wind and always smiling she will be missed. God bless this sweet Angel and her family. R.I.P.
