Annabel Hall

Sale Creek

Annabel Gothard Hall, age 100 of Sale Creek, passed away Tuesday, July 18, 2017 at her home. She was born in Sale Creek on November 7, 1916 to the late Annie Marisa (May) and Edward Gothard. She is also preceded in death by her husband, Jimmy Hall, her son, James G. Hall, her daughter Pamela Hall-Mertes, in addition to her grandson, Chris Pierce. She is also preceded in death by her sisters, Sadie Brown, Easter Thornburg and Lilly May Cook, in addition to her brothers, Lloyd Gothard, Harry Gothard, and William Gothard.

Annabel spent most of her life in Sale Creek, and she graduated from Sale Creek High School with the class of 1933. She then graduated from McKenzie College before going to work at Dupont as a laboratory specialist. She later became owner of Ladybug Bridal Shop in Chattanooga, and worked there for many years. Annabel was a member of the Sale Creek Church of Christ.

Annabel is survived by her daughter, Jan Tucker of Hendersonville, TN, her beloved niece and caretaker, Betty Young of Sale Creek, and her great niece, Pam Prickett of Sale Creek. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews, as well as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A funeral service for Annabel will be held Saturday at 1:00pm in the funeral home chapel with Pastor Jason Brooks of Lafayette, GA officiating. She will be laid to rest in Rhea Memory Gardens.

Please share your memories of Annabel in her online guest register at www.vanderwallfh.com.

The family is being cared for by Vanderwall Funeral Home in Dayton where they will receive friends on Friday from 5:00pm until 8:00pm.

The family would like to say a special thanks to the Hospice of Dayton, TN.

i enjoyed the many times i visited with my grandmother in Chattanooga. We went to Lake Winnepasauka several times. My cousins Blair and Jeff Hall were always over to have some fun during my families vacation. My grandmother was a hard worker and always tried to give her time with her grandchildren. i will miss her very much!!..Love, Johnny Tucker
