“ Don, Wade and Lance, so sorry to hear of Anna's passing. I only carry the fondest of memories of our time spent with you all so many summers ago. Aunt Anna's smile and little southern chuckle are still crisp in my memory today.

My thoughts, prayers and sympathy to each of you and the extended family. Trust she is in a much better place with no pain or suffering. Sorrow is a journey whose map unfolds one day...one moment at a time, please know that we care very much about what you are going through and our hearts and support will be with you.

“ My sister-in-law, Anna, was one of the best Christian women I have known. She was a wonderful mother and grandmother, and most of all she shared her life with my brother, Don for 52 years. I was a bridesmaid at their wedding in 1958=what a beautiful bride she was. Anna will be missed by all our family. We rejoice in the assurance that she is with our Lord, Jesus Christ for all eternity!###imported-begin##Joyce Coleman Ford###imported-end##
