“ It was evident tonight how many people loved your sweet Ashley! After the service several of us "Siskin Girls" went out for dinner and drinks and celebrated Ashley with a toast just for her! We know she would love it and felt her right there with us, laughing, talking and just having fun! We discussed our sadness, our shock, our concern for her family-and what could we do about it...so Dodson/Dworkin family... Please KNOW to call any of us anytime you need help....we will make it happen! We will continue to keep you all in our prayers and rejoice that Ashley is with her Savior!

“ my wife was in Siskin three times in 7 years and Ashley was her nurse on each occasion during some time of her stay. Always she greeted her with a smile and was gracious to her and myself when I was in the room. She will be greatly missed. She is jewel of a person.

“ My dearest memory of Ashley was the first time I met her while interviewing for an amazing job keeping her little angel Levan. She made me feel at ease even though I was a nervous wreck. Ashley believed in me and gave me a wonderful job keeping little Levan. Ashley was the type of person who always cared about other. Every morning when she would get off of work she would call and offer to bring me breakfast. Upon arriving home every morning no matter how exhausted she was she would come and spend time with Levan and conversate with me then head off to bed with her best buddy Chaplain. Ashley was an amazing mother. I always considered Ashley as a friend and I am so blessed to have known her and her amazing family.

*My deepest sympathies,

“ You were there when I first got there. Sat together and laughed. You said, if you come back tomorrow i will. Your smile, intoxicating. I even watched your eyes twinkle when you spoke about getting ready to go on a date with Matt right at the beginning. Girl love, innocent and sweet times. You have your wings beautiful angel. Fly.

“ Ashley, you were one of the sweetest people I have ever met. It was always a joy to see you at work. You had one of the most beautiful smiles I have ever seen. You were a wonderful young woman with a very big heart. I know that you have been so happy in your life choices with your marriage to Matt, your son, stepson, & your beautiful home. I know it was very hard on you when your mother became ill. I think God put you all together this past year so you could enjoy each other's love before you had to go. We all love you Ash & will not forget you. R.I.P. sweet girl. Now I know an angel in Heaven. May God bless & watch over your family.
