“ My mom is my rock and to lose her has been devastating. She can rest in peace now and will be missed by so many people. She will be laid to rest with her mother Grace and sister Reba. My mom was so funny and always had everyone laughing. I spoke with her the night before she passed and she sounded great and we laughed and talked for an hour , so to get that phone call the next day that she passed away was a shock to everyone. She cared for others with no time to care for herself. I love you Mom and you are missed so much and I hope she always knew she was loved.
