“ Betty was my Mom's best friend since high school. They met when they were Freshmen and later discovered that they were actually cousins. My Mom said she would babysit me and later when she came to pick me up, she would have my hair styled in little ringlets that she curled individually, Thanks Betty for all the attention! She would never leave from a visit or a phone call without ending with a big I love You! After retirement, she traveled to many destinations with me, Mom and Emma Pritchett. These ladies were a blast! Thanks Betty for being the sweet sister my Mom never had and we will definitely be looking forward to seeing you again in heaven. Bye for now, but not forever. Tell Randal and Sherry Hello!

“ I always looked forward to seeing the two special ladies, Mabel and Betty each week as they volunteered at the hospital. They were the most fun pair as the laughed and shared all of their travel shenanigans with me. When Mabel passed, Betty continued to shine her light as she shared the joy she had from Christ in her every day living. I loved Betty and will miss her so. As someone already mentioned, Betty was indeed a class act, a beautiful soul, and I know heaven just got sweeter.

“ I am sending love to the family of my sweet, beautiful friend, Betty Jean Colvin. I will always cherish my memories of Betty. She was always so sweet when I saw her at church or at a little party or if she or she and a friend stopped by the house for a visit or just a little chat on the phone or a little note sent in the mail. We both love our family and enjoyed talking about loving our grandchildren and her great-grandchildren. I got acquainted with Betty, when I worked at Rhea Nursing Home, where her sweet Mother, Mrs. Hazel Ball, was a resident. Betty enjoyed life...I know she is enjoying her NEW LIFE in Heaven. “ Betty was a beautiful soul. We at Mountain View United Methodist Church send our deepest sympathy to her family. Betty and I joined Mountain View on the same day as members and she has always held such a special place in my heart. She always dressed perfectly and accessorised flawlessly. We always discussed her beautiful jewelry and she would tell me how it was her sisters and how much she missed her. Covid made it difficult to visit her but I tried to write her a note once in awhile. RIP Betty my sweet friend. You are now with Jesus, in Paradise 🌹🙏
