“ May 1965 Charles was screaming so loud doing the graduation that my mother (Katie mama) and his mother (Nora) left before they got to hear my salutatorian speech! Everyday, I teased him about knowing when to cry. Charles was a very strong, loving and sensitive man. When he became emotional, his face turn red and he would cry. It was a joy to be his Aunt Polly ❤️💕 I will always cherish the loving memories. Kim and Jayden you were the joy of his life. We will miss touching Charles 😭 but we will never forget him. Aunt Polly. 🙏🙏 & Love 😍😘

“ Sending thoughts and continued prayers for his Mom Karen Hughes and family. As kids Billy and I grew up together and his Mom was like a second Mom to our family. We grew up in the circle where we played baseball with sticks and rocks, red Rover red Rover in the dirt or mud and HAD THE BEST LIFE A CHILD COULD HAVE!! We didn't have much as far as money came but we were Rich in true friendship. Rest easy Billy no more sorrow or pain My childhood friend❤️💙🙏
