“ My heart breaks for this sweet girl. We were always good friends throughout highschool. One of the most outspoken , honest, tell it to you straight but yet so friendly and sweet, person. We bonded at first over the fact we have the same exact birthday and birthday year and that we have the same first name . She was always there for whomever needed a friend. Needed stuck up for, or simply just someone to vent to. I will always remember you sweet girl. We will all see you again one day .

“Britanni was truly a one of a kind soul and amazing friend. She didn't know a stranger and always lit up a room with her kindness. She made everyone around her feel at home and welcome. The first time I met her was in home room my freshman year and she sat right in front of me and turned right around and started talking to me like she had known me for years!! I thought she was crazy at first because I had never met someone so friendly!! I will always remember how she made me feel by welcoming me as a friend without judgement, her heart was made of pure kindness. We shared many memories together that I will cherish every one of them.
