“ soooo many good and sweet memories come flooding across my mind from your living on Brest Rd. in Taylor and the many times your kids and ours spent time together singing around the piano and Mae playing and Fred singing with her at church's. From our kids going to school together when we lived in Taylor to the anniversary's spent eating frog legs and the taies you told about them that made me not want to eat them again. From your driving our boat in the Detroit River, real apprehensive getting in it, but when you were given the wheel, how much you enjoyed the speed and the water. The times we spent in Rouge Hills on the toboggan and Burlie freezing in the snow, but unwilling to give up all the fun. From the times in Ann Arbor working with you and Mae and going out to eat Chinese. Last time we saw you was in 2004 when we had our 50th. and got to travel over 6000 miles ending our long trip by going to Tennessee and staying with you and Mae. My heart and prayers are with your beloved Mae and your children. In heaven, we will all be together again, as we were in the past. I love the obit picture, it captures all your mischeivousness and character. Love you Burl-Master!!
