“ The best memories I have are of my childhood. Grandma and Grandad Robinson were certainly a big part of that. Used to get up early as a kid. Family reunions there in Tennessee at there house would be up at 5am ready to play. Grandma was always up starting breakfast. Would be just me and her. Only time I ever really did enjoy hearing a good Bible story. All these years later I have no words for how bad I miss those moments. Miss them both and the best of memories.
Joseph B. Robinson. Miss you all. ”

“ I am so sorry for your loss. When I think of Godly men I always think of Billy Graham and Brother Robinson. I have never heard a bad word spoken about him. ”
