“ So sorry we missed the funeral. Katie checked me into Erlanger at 3pm today. I am having tests done on my heart. I cannot get my breath. I think they have found the problem. I will be here for a few days. We will come see you when I get out, God willing. Fishing will not be the same without Ray. Some people just knew how to make even a bad day fun.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your husband, father and grandfather. I worked with Ray for many years. He was loved and respected by his brother and sister boilermakers. He was a good man and a good supervisor. He didn't care to tell anyone how much he loved his family and his Loretta. But he wanted everyone to know above all he loved God. He will be missed. Take comfort in knowing he is with his saviour and you will see him again one day.

“ It's true God only takes the best first. Ray is going to be missed dearly. Who are we going to call when we run out of gas on the river or when we're having boat troubles, even when storms was coming & he knew we was out on the boat he'd call to tell us to start heading back. Ray was one of the best men I've even known, he was such a wonderful uncle. I love you Ray & I'm gonna miss you like crazy!

“ We have lost one of God's finest examples of a loving, caring, serving Christian. I loved him so much, as did countless others. When Ray Tucker steps up to receive his heavenly rewards, it will keep God busy for quite a while. My amazing uncle was dependable, faithful & generous. If there was a need, he never failed to pitch in. He loved everyone & they loved him. His testimony could bring tears, telling of God pulling him from the depths of sin & molding him into a man who not only loved God, but worshiped, worked for, talked about, taught about & served Him with every ounce of his being. What an inspiration Ray Tucker was to everyone who knew & loved him, his rewards will be many and so well deserved.

My heart aches for Aunt Loretta, Angie, Gena, Billy, Kristian, Haley & Parker & for his brother Rodger & all our families. We must strive to live a Christian life the way Uncle Ray lived his, and we will look forward to seeing him again! He will be easy to find....in the back yard of one of the largest mansions, cooking up a mess of his delicious fish and hush puppies, welcoming & serving a crowd!

“ Ray exhibited a love for all through his faith and love of Jesus, a wonderfu, humble man of God. He and Loretta shared their home and love with his Sunday school class who raised money to provide for needy children at Christmas. He was an example of Christ's teaching to love one another. My love and prayers for his family.”
