“ I want to take the time to share my thought's and tears To say Im sorry to hear that a real good friend of mine had to pass away so fast And I never thought Charlotte Kinkle was this close to death until I spoke with her son one day. Her thought and prayer will always remain in my heart..I will always miss all the good times we had together she was a very good person to get alone with and she has been there for me when I was sad.
