

Coy Edward Manry

November 7, 1938 - January 26, 2010

Coy Edward Manry, age 71 of Spring City and formerly of Crossville, died Tuesday, January 26, 2010 at Erlanger in Chattanooga. He was born November 7, 1938 in Tukerman, Arkansas to the late Coy and Bulah (King) Manry.

He is survived by his sons Mark Manry of Cookeville, TN and Coy Manry of Lawrence, KS, daughters Kathy Dominquez of Fresno, CA, Marlynn Mosley and Brenda Barnell of Topeka, KS and Wendy Donnley of Kansas City, KS, sister Wanda Galloway of Crossville, TN, thirteen grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Coy was much loved and will be missed. Expressions of sympathy may be mailed to 650 Old Stage Road, Spring City, TN 37381 and will be forwarded to his children.

Vanderwall Funeral Home in Dayton, TN is in charge of the arrangements.

Please visit Coy's on-line guest register at www.vanderwallfh.com.

Tribute Wall

“ my father##imported-begin##coy and sheri manry##imported-end##

February 08, 2010 at 10:56 PM

“ to all who knew mr.ed.....we will surely miss his humor and little stories..the short time he was with us made us smile..and we only hope that we made his last years happy and content..he will surely be missed..

love your other family

*lori and sam##imported-begin##lori nucifore/sam
johnson##imported-end##*

February 03, 2010 at 03:52 PM