“ Dale, there are so many great things to say about you. You loved life and had a way of takin whatever negative it gave you an twisted an turned it into a positive. You didn't have the easiest road, but you never failed to thank God for what did go right for you and what you did have. It didnt take much at all to excite you, or make you happy. That inspired me. There should be way more people like you these days. And besides that, you were a heck of a card player!!! There was never a dull moment around you, you brightened every room you walked into and made sure everbody was smiling. Thank you for all that you taught me, I never realized how much I really learned from you. Rest in peace rock!! You will never be replaced your forever in my heart, crossin my mind every day, and when I'm fishing, I know you'll be right with me

“ I recall the few times working with Mr. Dale. He was a kind sole whom laughed out loud several times. I promised him I would play gin rummy in two weeks. Wishing I had the opportunity to play the card game before his passing.
