“ Uncle Dan, you have been more than an uncle to me down through the years. A great friend and mentor to me when I was younger. Even though we didn't see each other as much in the last several years as life and new family additions and work always seem to have a way of distancing family members, you always had a way of creeping into my memories. Always good memories! I know you knew Christ as your savior, and are with him now looking down on the sadness we have without you, but instead of dwelling on the loss, I'm going to celebrate the joy you have brought so many people and I'll see you a little later down the road.
