“Pepe was one of the greatest men to walk this world. No amount of flowers or candles virtual or real can amount to anything even feasible to his legacy. The bravest, most hardworking man I've ever known, proud to call him my grandfather and at times my father. You're the greatest Guardian angel anyone could ever ask for. I hope I grow up with the determination and work ethic you had and I hope one day my future kids can be like you. This isn't goodbye, only see you later when we all join you in His kingdom. I love you Danny, Pepe Danny with an E, Danny. There is not a bad memory I have of you. Always bringing a smile to everyone. For the last Earthly time, we love you. Can't wait to see you again. - Lane.
