“ My baby brother, never in a million years would I be laying you to rest. Thru life I was your protector. You and I would fight like siblings always do, but ur my heart... Your a son, a brother, a uncle, a great uncle, a grandson, and was about to be a husband and a step dad. . you were a friend to so so many.. God had other plans for you. While your looking down from heaven please watch over all of us. We love and miss you already... Until we meet again bub, love your dra-dra, your sis... Amanda June Kilgore-Burton
