“ Where do I begin? I met both you and Bettye 48 years ago Delmer. Your precious baby girl Kellie caught our daughter Shari's eye. You were barbecuing in your back yard. Seems like a lifetime ago and at same time like yesterday. Our families were entwined with the most beautiful friendship throughout the years. I was blessed to have you, your precious wife Bettye and my Kelico in my life. We love you all! Thanks for all the sweet memories Delmer. Rest In Peace dear friend!!! Love Connie, James, Shari and Karie. Give Bettye and my Little boy Jimmy a big hug for me. Until We meet Again💔😭❤️❤️

“ I miss laying in the floor with Kellie in front of the tv and you walking in the door saying hey boys and you getting in the recliner turning on the scanner and watching heehaw. You out in the garden burning down old corn stalks, mowing the lawn. All those little things are just great memories! When you took us to the fair, tractor pulls. I could just keep going. Now that I'm older thank you for sticking up for me when mom put soap in my mouth for saying my first curse word!!! Lol I love you so very much

Where do I begin my dear friend? You certainly left an imprint on my heart, along with my best friend, your beautiful wife, Bettye and precious baby girl Kellie. So many years ago our little girls brought us together. We shared many precious times. Forever blessed to have been given your friendship and love in this lifetime. We Love You Delmer! May you rest in peace and when you reunite with Bettye, give her a great big hug for me. Forever In Our Hearts! Love Connie and Family💔😭❤️❤️❤️🙏
