“ Wendy, we were heartbroken when we learned of your tragic loss. Daylie was so sad, you are very special to her. I know what a wonderful mother you were because you've always treated our Daylie so special. Your sweet and beautiful son is enfolded in the arms of Jesus and you will see him again someday. My prayers are with you as you struggle with your pain and sadness.

“ Dear Rick and Wendy,

We grieve with you over the loss of this precious little boy. To be sure, we cannot relate in any way to this loss, but our prayer is that the God of all comfort, the God Who gave His only Son for us, will comfort you as only He can. May you be keenly aware of His presence during these very difficult days, and may He give you peace and renewed joy. We care very much about you.##imported-begin##Jack and Karin Traylor##imported-end##

“ Ricky & Wendi - You guys KNOW how much we love you! Our prayers are for you not only today but in days to come. We will never understand why until we get to heaven but we do know that God has picked a PRECIOUS ROSE to come live with Him. I will never forget the day we visited in the hospital when Devon was born, wrapped up so tightly, little hat on and all you could see was his big shiny eyes - so precious! Just recently was a special day that I'll never forget as well and that was when Wendi brought Devon to the office and he was a little "jumping jack"! We absolutely had a ball watching him as his little feet touched the desk and he would have the biggest smile ever - how he loved to JUMP JUMP JUMP. We always loved our visits with Wendi and Devon. Devon has been a joy to us and we love our pictures of him and will always cherish them. Devon we will miss you dearly! Ricky and Wendi we are always here for you; be it someone to talk with, look at pictures with, share memories with, pray with, stare into space with or just because - we are here anytime of the day! Our prayer is that God will comfort and sustain you during this time. Although it is hard to comprehend at all right now but be assured that EVERYTHING is "filtered" thru God first and only He holds all the answers. LOVE YOU ! “ Wendy and Ricky, We just heard about your little Devon. Our hearts are devastated about the loss of your son, and our "adopted" grandson. I still remember the time we came to the restaurant and held him and I looked at Pete and said "Hey, grandpa, here's your latest grandson." We were so pleased you accepted that. Wendy, you were so generous with all his pictures. I have them from four months old to eight months old. We will cherish them. We did not make it to the funeral because Pete broke his ankle and cannot walk for awhile. But our thoughts and our hearts are with you. You are in our prayers and your family is on our prayer list at our church. There is nothing that can be said to ease your pain, but know that we care. Much love to you and your family.

“ *Mr & Mrs Pilcher,
I don't know you personally but I eat at the Peking House almost weekly and I was so saddened by the loss of your beautiful boy. I, too, lost a son at 10 1/2 months. No, I don't know how you feel because everyone is different but I do know that the pain was unbearable at times. I greived for many years and just went through the motions of life for a long time but 7 years later had the courage to have a daughter who is now 14 years old and a wonderful blessing.*

All I know is that for some reason I was suppose to have a beautiful son for a short time who taught me a lot about love and appreciation for the Gift of Life itself and everyone around me. I still miss him. I hope that you talk about him often and keep him alive in your hearts. I pray that God will comfort you always.##imported-begin##Marcene Yeargan##imported-end##

2 Corinthians 1:3-6

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For just as the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ.##imported-begin##Mary Pendergrass##imported-end##
