“ I have many fond memories growing up 2 doors down from Max and Helen on Indian Hollow road. Helen used to tell a story about a 4 year old boy who knocked on her door and when she asked me my name I told her "Dennis the Menace" who I was named after. I also knocked myself out when I fell on their basement floor while playing Army with Mike and Helen carried me up the steps until my mom came and got me. Max included me in several adventures with Brown family. I ate meals in their home, went rabbit hunting with Max and Mike, took a vacation with them in Spring City at Pappy Ross' house to name a few.
I am very sorry to hear about your loss and I think about Isaiah 25:8 where God promises to remove death from the earth.
Thinking about the Brown family,

“ Sadly the funeral home omitted the information about the family requesting donations to Hospice of Chattanooga in lieu of flowers.

“ I have so many fond memories of summers in Spring City with Uncle Max. He always knew when the ice cream truck would be making it's rounds and would decide we needed to go for a walk. We always managed to come back with a treat! Spending time with Uncle Max is one of my favorite childhood memories from Spring City. Rest easy. You will be missed.
