

Edward Ray Jordan

April 25, 1938 - April 15, 2014

Edward R. Jordan, age 75, of Dayton went home to be with his Lord Tuesday afternoon, April 15, 2014 in Dayton. He was born April 25, 1938 in Chattanooga to the late James and Frances (Tucker) Reno. He was preceded in death by his wife of 48 years, Carolyn (Horne) Jordan and his brother, Charles L. Jordan.

A resident of Chattanooga, Ed moved to Dayton in 1952. He was employed as a boilermaker at ABB Combustion Engineering. After retirement, Ed was employed at Vanderwall Funeral Home. He had a membership in Rhea County Amateur Radio Society, TN Valley Baptist Association and a Home Land Security Officer. Ed served his country in the US Air Force for 8 years active duty and 21 years in the TN Army National Guard. He was a member of Dayton First Baptist Church where he served as Trustee, Deacon, President of Sonshiners Club and various committees.

Ed is survived by his wife, Betty (Holland) Jordan of Dayton; his son, Robert Jordan and grandson, Robert (Alex) Phillips all of Dayton and son, Patrick (Lynette) Jordan of Chattanooga.

Funeral services for Ed will be held Friday at 1:00 p.m. in the funeral home chapel with Rev. Milton Knox officiating. He will be laid to rest with military honors in Rhea Memory Gardens.

Please share your memories of Ed on his online guest register at www.vanderwallfh.com.

The family is being served by Vanderwall Funeral Home where they will be receiving friends Thursday from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

“ Eddie and I were classmates and neighbors on Third Avenue when he moved to Dayton. We attended First Baptist Church together and our Mothers were good friends. I always enjoyed seeing him at our reunions . I was so sorry when Mary Ann called and told me of his death. Just want you to know I am thinking of you at this time.
