“ Liz and I were friends when we were about 5 years old. Her friendship, though but for a short while and so long ago, was indeed a blessing, and I can see that she was a blessing to the people who knew her through the years since then. I offer my sincere condolences and lift up my prayers for her family, for her friends, and for all of the people whose lives she touched. God bless.##imported-begin##John McArn##imported-end##

“ Liz, not a day has gone by since you left us that you are not in my thoughts. Romping around Mtn. View as kids was just the best. I am so sorry you felt so helpless and that I could not have been there to hold your hand. I will never forget you Liz and you are forever missed and loved.##imported-begin##Mitzy Yother Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Wanda,Charley,&Charles,

I just heard of Elizabeth's passing. I can't quite put my feelings into words.It had been a number of years since I last saw her,but when I did she was still her high spirited self with a beautiful personality,a contagious smile,Liz, was Liz and I will always hold her in my heart that way. Just know my thoughts and prayers are with everyone. With time and the grace of God the pain will lesson but the emptiness never seems to fade. All my love and prayers,

Sincerly,

“ Dear Hamby and Reynolds Families,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in your loving memories of Elizabeth, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy,##imported-begin##valerie thompson##imported-end##
