“My papaw.. You were so much more to me than you will ever know. I knew from the first time I met you and your family that there would be an eternal connection...not only thru our Father, but thru our children. I was in the hospital the day you went home to meet our Jesus...very sad day for all of us but knowing that you are up there singing with the angels and prolly teaching them a thing or two, makes me smile. You and mamaw n Jenny have been such an inspiration to me spiritually I can never repay. Just know I will never forget the love for God that you showed me and joy I got from singing praises to the King with my family. Preston is sure gonna miss watching baseball with you but you will be up there guiding his thoughts and motions on the field and he will be GREAT. I will never forget you, papaw. Joanna

“Did you ever know that you're my hero and everything I wish I could be? I can fly higher than an eagle, 'cause you are the wind beneath my wings. There are no words to say to describe the emptiness I feel today. I miss you, Daddy, but I know you are happy and healthy and singing in the presence of the Lord! Although we had our "moments", I hope you know that I love you so much! Every time I needed you, you were there. When I hurt you, you were there. When I did things I was not proud of, you were there. And in my shining moments, you were there. I live on today with the promise that you are watching over me and that one day I will be re-united with you. Give Jim and Momma Marge a hug for me! I LOVE YOU, DADDY!

“ So glad to have been part of your family for the last 9 years. What a great, funny man you were, & you will be missed. It's unfortunate that you will miss baseball season this year, but I know you will looking down on Preston, helping him out on the field. And I know you'll watch little Baby Jane grow from heaven. Love you dearly Papaw!
