She was a lovely lady that we just had the privilege of meeting about a year and a half ago. We got to know her and her husband during family gatherings since her grandson married our daughter. Our heartfelt condolences to the Brooks, Link and Collins families and all others in her life.

What a beautiful example of a Christian woman and Grandmother. Sharing Grandchildren after divorce is not always easy but this lady and her Daughter have been just awesome. Many times over the past ten years we have met to share Grandparent visits and I was always received with a smile. God gained another angel. Prayers going up for the Brooks' family and friends as they travel. May they find peace in knowing that we shall see her again in heaven.
