“ David, Jeremy and families,

I was so sorry to find out just a few minutes ago that your daddy had passed away. I thought a lot of Bro. Harold. He was such a Godly man, and I had a lot of respect for him and your mom. May the Lord give you all comfort!

*In Christ,

“ I have a lot of great memories of Pastor Crisp and his dear wife "Jeri". She taught me so much as my Sunday School teacher.. She was such a gentle, sweet lady .My heart was just broken when they lost their daughter and then their son ,too. I will never forget how my mother-in-law loved going to their church and learning so much. They were such a comfort to my husband when she passed away in '95..I will always remember Brother Harold and Sister "Jeri" as two of the most caring people and I am sure they are now receiving the rewards that they worked so hard for. My prayers are with the family left behind.
