“ Hiram Green is one of those individuals you will always remember. I know I will. I first met Hiram 40 years ago when his company did company work for Roane County. He did quality work and stood behind it. More recently, Hiram played a critical role in my Senate election campaign. In this day of mass marketing, he politicked the old fashioned way -- one vote at a time by personal contact. He was an extraordinary individual who never met a stranger. I was honored to know him and call him friend, and I shall surely miss him. Thanks for the good memories. My condolences to the family who he loved so much.##imported-begin##Ken Yager##imported-end##
