“ I am grateful that at long last I was able to meet Ruth and lola a couple years ago after a lifetime of hearing my mother talk about their days in Saskatchewan when the two families lived "across the field" and went back and forth and often had Sunday dinners together. lola's faith and commitment are an inspiration.##imported-begin##Sherry Petry, a cousin##imported-end##

“ We will always remember lola & Ruth coming through the Gulf Coast of Mississippi on their way back home from a road trip to the west coast. What fun they both were to be around and we enjoyed having them in our home. I know the family feels the loss of this precious one but I can just picture her in heaven - having the best time of her new life, getting to see her Saviour and all the many people- whos lives she influenced and led to the Lord, what a home coming that must be!!!##imported-begin##Kay & Paul VanderLey##imported-end##

“ We will always remember Aunt lola. Shw taught us more than she ever realized and know she is enjoying her well planned for visit with God. We are thinking of and praying for Aunt Ruth and her family. We wish we were closer to be with you and share all the beautiful memories of our wonderful Aunt.##imported-begin##Nathan & Kathi Renslow##imported-end##

“ My thoughts flash back to hearing "Aunt Olie" tell her stories about missions in the Congo in the Camp Cedine Chapel. She always let us know, "You can always trust God to see you through". God blessed her with many days and He blessed us by her presence, her smiles, her stories, and her laughter. For the family, I hope the Lord will flood your minds and thoughts with the special memories of her life, the Bible verses she quoted to challenge us and knowing HEAVEN IS A WONDERFUL PLACE.##imported-begin##Faith Anne (Neddo) Hatcher##imported-end##

“ we have lost on this earthly planet a person who truly served God in her works in the missionary field and in life itself. My thoughts are with her family. May she sleep so ever peacefully in the arms of Jesus. My love to her family and especially to the Zimmerman family for which I was allowed such a privilege to know. My love at this time of great loss.##imported-begin##jackie king,neighbor##imported-end##
