“ Hey pops... I miss you so much. Hard to believe it's been 18 years. Your great grand daughter is 16 now. You would have loved her. She's just like her mama.
I don't have a mom anymore. I don't have any family from your side. They all hate me. Pam has hated me since I apparently stole her husband from her. It hurts but what can I do? I was shoved out of her life long before now. She only has one daughter according to her and it's not me. I wish you and mamaw were still here. Yall were the only ones that ever truly wanted me. I miss you every day papaw. I hope the times comes soon when I can see yall again.
Love you

“"Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him." I Thess. 4:13,14 (NIV).

Dear Betty, Kathy, Pam, and grandchildren, I treasure the memory of Edison, not only as a brother in God's family, but also as a fellow veteran of the U.S. military. He was one of those whom Tom Brokaw (NBC news) called "The Greatest Generation." May God's Amazing Grace be with your spirits until we see him again.

Thank You, Father, for James Edison Creaseman.

Much love and our prayers, family!
