“ Jan was a classmate at Missouri Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. We were a close knit bunch of kids who lived, studied, worked, and ate with one another. Every once in awhile we had some time off together, then we played together too.
We maintained friendships and loved getting together at reunions to refresh ourselves, tell old tales and just thoroughly enjoy our times together.
I loved Jan, as I think we all did.
I expect one day to have yet another reunion with Jan, when we meet in our eternal home with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ There are so many memories to share but the best were the many hours we share our lives and how our Lord cared for us.
