“ I love and miss you like crazy grandma! It's not the same getting up in the morning eating breakfast with you , or when mom goes to work getting up making sure you had your breakfast and coffee. We have so many memories and got close there at the last but I want you to know that I was there beside you the whole time I held your hand til you to your last breath, it was hard but I know that was what you would want and I also know that you looked amazing you looked like and angel and that truly what I feel when I go visit you like a relief . You are no longer suffering and you can walk again and you would love where your at you can go shopping like you always liked to do.....love you grandma always and forever will.... You will be truly missed....Love your grand daughter, Sonya dee

Sonya I know it breaks your heart the way your grandmother treated you he was always different just like I was the black sheep of the family but regardless your grandmother loves you and when she died she left behind her grandkids and her great-grand babies but one thing you need to look at she's in a better place she's not suffering any longer she's watching down and praying for every single one of you kids she wants happiness and want you to do better She always told me that just take a couple deep breaths and think back on everything that your grandmother has said to you take a little bit of her respectful words but no worries moms in a better place her pain is gone her walking is free she has met all of her family and friends and Heaven & looking down

“ I met Jeannie when I was in my teens and as I grew into an adult; time and life spaced out our friendship. Yet, no matter where I saw her, whether in Walmart or at the Flea Market, she was always the same friendly lady who always recognized me and we would catch up and go on with our routines. It saddens me that I cannot attend her services but my thoughts and prayers go out to the family as they grieve. I will certainly miss seeing Jeannie around. R.I.P. Jeannie you will be missed!

Thank you alison for your sympathy , yes I did everything I could, I can't say I have any regrets , my mom was a strong woman , close to the end she couldn't keep going on with her lifestyle the way she was living , I can remember seeing her in so much pain, she could never get relaxed in the bed , she always said she couldn't hardly breathe she always had to sit ups on the side of the bed to sleep and one of us would have to sit in the living room with her and watch over her. because we was afraid she might fall out of the bed ,but now she's in heaven not suffering and she is painfree ,she smiling I'm watching over me and everyone else, she's my guardian angel I love her so much , there isn't a day that doesn't go by that I don't think of her , she will always remain in my heart.
