“ I was just a cashier at Fred's Super Dollar when this sweet man walked into my life. He's the sweetest man anyone could ever meet. He had a certain candy we had to get him and he would follow closely behind. Tell me and a coworker how we were like daughters to him. He would tell us he loved us, give us a hug, and be on his way. I will never forget this man. Rest in Peace, Jesse! You might be gone, but the imprint you left on my heart will remain.
