“ Jim enjoyed people whenever you talked to him, he was always trying to make you smile or laugh. Jim loved his family very much. He felt a strong responsibility to taking care of them and providing for them to the best of his ability. Having been married for almost 39 years is a great accomplishment in today's world. Being strong enough to stand together in the tough times. Jim was blessed to have a godly mamaw who cared enough to see as a child he was in church. You could say John 3:16 summed it up. Jim had no doubts about his salvation. He knew for a fact he was saved from the penalty of sin. Jim knew God had prepared a place for him in heaven.

Special thanks to Uncle Buddy, Aunt Shirley, Viola and Woody for being there for the family and all your love and support.
