“ I hated to learn of Joe's death. He was a good friend of my brother, Carl Webster and me, when we lived in Charlotte. Such a great sense of humor. He was actually my brother's friend and I was the tag a long kid sister. He was three years older than me, but we wrote letters to each other a lot as friends. We loved him as we know his family did. ida Sue Webster Westerman

“ Thank you Tracy for letting me share a few days with your dad last summer. I loved listening to his stories. He was so special and worried about me the whole time I was there. I pray for you and your family during this time of tremendous loss and will always remember the time you told me he was your "hero". God has a special mansion for "hero's" like your dad.

The many years have not darkened my love for my uncle Joe. My first memory was 1956ish.
