“ *Dear Frances, and Annie,
We send our prayerful and heartfelt condolences on the "Graduation to Glory" of Johnnie. WE know you will miss him, but we also know you will not miss seeing him suffer any more. May your faith in God's promise Who said "He who believes in Me, although he die, he shall live forever". God keeps his promises. Now Johnnie can see not only the mountains but all of the wonders of creation among which are those folks he loved while here on earth. I'm sure he will never forget you and we, of course, know you won't forget him. Blessings of peace and joy.##imported-begin##Marie Tougas & Avy Morse##imported-end##*

“ Johnny - I will always remember you as one of my favorite cousins. You and your family welcomed us to the US in 1956 as we made our new lives here. You were the model "American teenager" with your motorcycle, girlfriends, and active lifestyle. Your passion in those days was bodybuilding, as I recall you working out all the time. I am sorry that time and lives move by so quickly, but I know that you are now with your Mom and Dad and will watch over Frances, Tony and all of your family.##imported-begin##Ray Calafell##imported-end##
