“ Rhonda, Mark, & Wendy, I know Uncle Johnny would have been 87 today. It is so hard to face all the ' Firsts ' after a parent passes. Of course you three already experienced the same heartbreaking pain when your precious Mama left us, and my own wonderful mother joined Aunt Audrey not long afterwards. I'm feeling so sad today, thinking of how it used to be before so many of our family were taken. Our love for them never ends but our tears will eventually be a bit less. We will always miss them but we have to keep going and cling to Jesus for His saving grace & the promise of eternal life. Our Faith & Following the path God has set for us will lead us to Heaven. Someday, all our pain will be gone, there will be no more tears, no more longing for loved ones , no worries, no sadness. I am looking forward to that reunion and I'm looking forward to thanking Sweet Jesus face to face!! I love you all so much. We are so blessed to be family, I think family is our heaven on earth.

“ The 1st time Uncle Johnny met my step son Ethan (he was 8 yrs old at the time), Uncle Johnny looked at Ethan and said " you wanna fight??" Ethan was stunned. He was lost for words. All he could do was crunch down and shake his head "no" with his eyes wide open. It was so funny. I laughed so hard because i knew how Uncle Johnny loved to "aggravate" people on purpose. What a character. RIP Uncle Johnny. You will be missed.
