“ Joanna and J L,
Just now found this! So very sorry about Mrs Kay! I know this is very late but wanted you to know that all my love and thoughts and condolences are around you still at this time!
I lost my dear Mama in 2006 and I know exactly how you feel!! Kay was a wonderful person. She and Luke went to church with us many years at Victory Baptist in town. That's how I met her! She loved to talk and I listened! I remember going to school and JL would drop me off there after I stayed the night at Kay's house! I knew she had passed cause of Joanna. I've lost both parents, 2 brothers and 2 sisters. One was Richard!! Times has changed, but not my great memories of people that meant something to me in my past!!
Thank you so much Kay for all the memories and times together! I loved you and your wonderful family!!

“ ‘Miss Kay’ as I was blessed to call you. I know you will truly be missed upon this earth. Yet, OH’ what a reunion you are having! I can only imagine what it is like to once again be with those that we have been seperated from. I got to know you when I married my husband. Both you and Mr. Luke were already dear friends with Perry and Kitty Kaylor, so when James and I married, you both became part of my new family. I am greatful for each time we were together in church and revival services. If I could ask one thing of you now it would be to give our love to Dad and Mom Kaylor, let them know we are all looking forward to our reunion day. It is also ironic that you went home on Dad Kaylors birthday, anniversary, and the day he went home to be with his Lord and Saviour 22years ago. May the peace that guards our heart be with each one, family and friends of Miss Kay until we are all together again. ##imported-begin## Julie Kaylor ##imported-end## ”

“ Aunt Kay was a character...loved to talk about everything under the sun. She was inquisitive, curious, and she loved her family dearly. Her late husband, Luke, loved her and doted on her and for good reason. She was a bright, shiny soul. Everyone loved her. Rest in peace, Aunt Kay. My deepest sympathy to J.L. and JoAnn, et al.##imported-begin##Kim Perkinson Cooley##imported-end##
