“ Kathryn was a sweet lady. She was a believer, had a great sense of humor, was a wonderful hostess, excellent cook and fun to be around. She made our wedding cake while here in California. Seems like she was also known to collect a few Precious Moments Collectibles. Although absent here on Earth, Heaven is Rejoicing. We who had the priviledge of knowing her were truly blessed. Our condolences do go to Alan, Lora Belle, Dot and families. Sincerely, Bob, Sheila and David Carley and Arnetta Leas from California.

“ Kathryn Ann McClain was a bundle of energy. A sweet woman with so much to give, and she loved to give! Did you get a birthday card every year? You did if you remembered to send her one! If there was an event or occasion, I would bet that she has a picture of it at the house. Her presence in our lives was such a blessing and we are so grateful to have gotten to spend time with her. I love you and will miss you so much. But God promised that I would see you again, because I know that Christ was your Savior. I know that you are walking streets of gold, and if it is possible, taking pictures. (I hope that Jesus likes pictures and cake!) Heaven is now a sweeter place....literally.
