“ Ken was a man with a big heart. On the outside he looked stern but on the inside his heart was glowing. He loved his family deeply. I still think about our trip to Atlanta together and my best memory was Ken having fun. Thanks Ken and God bless.

“ I have so many memories of my uncle. He was the first man stepped up and fathered me after my mom and dad divorced. He's always been there for me when nobody else was. He was the best man I ever knew . The only comfort that I have is knowing that he is now with my mom and G. Uncle Kenny love you and I will watch over Kathy. Please tell mama I love her and miss her and give my G a kiss.
