“ It was with much sadness that I just learned of Kenny's passing. We were best friends in high school. I had not seen him for fifty years, but I still thought of him often. In fact, just a few weeks ago, he was on my mind so strongly, that I looked him up on a people search and found several telephone numbers. Unfortunately, I was not able to get an answer on any of them that were still working numbers. The good news is that we will still get to have a great reunion one day. Iris, it is my prayer that God will comfort you, your children and all of your family with the knowledge that the separation is only temporary and with the peace that only He can give. From the old paper route, Berry Green

“ It was a privilege to know Kenny. I got to know him at the Thursday morning Bible study of men from Grace Bible Church. He was very knowledgeable of scripture and shared his faith easily and often. He shared to me a story of leading a couple to Christ after helping them get gas for their car. Kenny will be missed. My condolences from those of us at Grace Bible who knew Kenny
