“ I remember when she was down to visit. She brought smiles to everyone. She got to meet my son her great great grandson. I'm so thankful for the time he got to spend with her. Even though she gained her angel wings Dec 1, 15 I will always tell Bentley about her. How kind how she had so much faith with the lord. How granny always would be there to talk to. I love you great granny. Your wisdom and faith will always help me threw

“ I remember her as a stubborn very loving aunt who would bend over backwards to help anyone. She will always have a part of my heart and utmost respect. She's wearing her Angel wings proudly and is with God and family. I love and miss you so much already.
