Larry was a good friend of my dad's, Zane Fairchild. I lost track of Larry after my dad passed in 2014. I can still hear that hearty laugh. Prayers your family.

I have known Larry and played music with him for many years. He, Bobby Sims, and I formed the Misfits Bluegrass Band back in the 1980s. We played all over the area. What great times we had. What good memories. I really loved that Dobroe. It made our sound. I will miss his playing style, his big smile, his hearty chuckle, and most of all just being around him. It is an honor to call Larry Holton my friend and I am already missing him so much. My thoughts are with his family and also with Marilyn.
