“Larry was a great man that we are glad that we got to know. We didn't have to spend a lot of time around each to understand that he was a loyal friend, father, and husband. We connected about truck driving and he had some great stories to tell. But hearing him talk about the love for his wife and kids is what shined through the most. He will be missed by all that knew him. Rest in peace our friend.

Larry was my brother-in-law. His wife, Brenda, was my sister. Larry loved my sister more than anything! He was also a very hard worker. Up everyday before dawn and I doubt he ever missed a day of work. He and Brenda loved car shows, especially the one at Daytona Beach. The first few years after she died, he would still call and check on my daughters. He was a very good man! I hope he and my sister are together again!
