“ It's been a few years since you passed, and I don't think I'll ever get over the beautiful but short lived presence you left in my - as well as many other's - lives. Your positive energy pushes me to be the very best person I can be. I'm sure you would've loved all the new mcu movies with Captain America in it. Rest in peace, and I wish for healing for your family.

“ I am truly sorry for your great loss. It always causes a special hurt when someone so young dies. I hope you find comfort in knowing that God views death as an enemy and soon will do away with it (1 Cor 15:26). And that God wants to ease your pain (Deut 32:10). He is a loving father and has every intention of us being reunited in perfect conditions with those loved ones we have lost (Rev 21:3,4). Again my heart goes out to you.

“ Lexee, I wish I knew you for made than a year. I wish I didn't live all the way across the U.S. because I wish I was there for you; I would do anything to spend more time with such a beautiful, intelligent, inspiring woman. When you told us "I love you guys" for the last time, that's what I started crying; I wish I could have hopped on a plane all the way to where you were. You inspired me as a person, helped me embrace who I am, and showed all of us how much of a beautiful spirit you are. You shaped me into who I am today, and I am proud to call you sister even if it was for a short while. I loved how excited you would get when we would send you messages and silly jokes. I will never forget you, and we will always love you. When I visit Tennessee again, I will come by with flowers and cards. I wish the greatest condolences to her family. If her family is reading this, please know that she is loved by many.
REST IN POWER, LEXEE!

Lexie..... Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel ~

A forever and funny memory..... Twins were babies sitting in highchairs at Nana's while she was preparing their breakfast. Nana gave the twins juice while they waited. At that time, Lexie was only 3 or 4 years old. Lexie noticed the juice and made sure to let Nana know, her baby sisters do not have liquid breakfasts!! She was so serious too! The cutest thing ever!

“ Lexee was the first great grandchild to be born into our family. She brought joy and love to each of us as we saw her grow, and she was the first of our next generation. We all have been blessed to have been a small part of her life. She was loved and respected by everyone she met. The Dotson family will miss Lexee and we will never forget her. Our love and our strength surrounds her family as they struggle to get thru this difficult time. Lexee is in heaven with God, and he will love her and enjoy her now, for eternity.

“ Lexee was one of the most talented students I ever had in class, truly remarkable. She will be missed by all who knew her. Ansley and Ashton, I can't imagine how much pain you are feeling. My prayers are with you and your family.

“Lexee has always held a special place in my heart. From the moment she walked into cheerleading camp at 3 bossing every one around to the middle schooler who was a cheerleading coach's dream to a beautiful sweet teenager. I have always been proud of my little lexee. She will be so missed. My heart just breaks for her family and all of those whose lives she has touched.
