“ I love Lisa so much. She called me nearly every day. She was the sweetest little sister. Give you everything she had if you wanted it. She loved everyone. She will dearly be missed by us all. I still can't believe she's gone.

“ Sister Lisa, We will miss you at church, how you loved to sing. We know you loved the Lord with all your heart and although it seems too soon you have won your final race and will rise one day and be in the presence of The Lord For Eternity! Thank God for the Resurrection!!

*We all love you,
Loretta Hall*
