“Louse's life beautifully illustrated to me a woman of kindness, and one with a tender, gentle spirit. When I saw her at The Courtyard assisted living facility I remember times when she gave a focused look into my eyes, which then followed by a loving smile, as if to say, "I see you and care." Even before sharing my concerns, she somehow seemed to know how to say the most appropriate, kind, and tender words that brought encouragement. It was if she knew what was going on inside this hurting heart, as I cared for my father who was also a co-resident with her at The Courtyard.

Her life, her smile, her eyes were beautiful to me. I will miss her Though I rejoice in her clear profession of faith toward the end. She is now more alive and at peace than all of us here. For, she is in the presence of Her loving Savior - whole and complete in Jesus. Her joy is full. Praise be the grace of God. For this parting is only temporary.

I love you Heidi, my dear sister in the Lord. You have a special place in my heart as you joined me in the burden and sorrows of caring for my beloved father in his last days. I pray God's comforting and healing grace to you. I pray this also for you Dawn, and to all your family.

Lovingly,

Stephanie Hartz
