

Lowell Hoyt

May 30, 1919 - April 6, 2007

Lowell Hoyt age 87 of Dayton died Friday April 6, 2007 in Memorial North Park Hospital. He was born May 30, 1919 in Dallas Center, IA the son of the late Clarence and Anna (Dorsey) Hoyt. He was also preceded in death by his first wife Lola (Goehring) Hoyt, his infant son Stephen Hoyt and son, Galen Hoyt.

Lowell earned his BA at Bryan College and BD and ThM at Grace Seminary and his Masters in Mathematics at University of South Carolina. He was a pastor from 1945-1960 and college math teacher from 1961-1979. He lived in Dayton since 1982 and was a member of the National Fellowship of Grace Brethren Church and attended Grace Bible Church.

Lowell is survived by his wife Rebecca (Peck) Hoyt of Dayton, his sons, Bruce Hoyt of New Zealand, Loren Hoyt of IA, Stanley Hoyt of GA, Mark Hoyt of TX and Sherwood Hoyt of PA, his daughter, Nelda Banek of TX, 35 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Lowell will be held Tuesday at 3pm in the funeral home chapel with Dr. Doug Russell officiating. Burial will be in Rhea Memory Gardens followed by a white dove release.

The family is being served by Vanderwall Funeral Home in Dayton where they will receive friends Monday 5-8pm. Memorial contributions may be made to Bryan College.

Please share your memories with the family on their on-line guestbook at www.vanderwallfh.com

Previous Events

Visitation

APR 9. 5:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

Vanderwall Funeral Home
164 Maple Street
Dayton, TN

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Rebecca, Bruce, Lois, Nelda, Loren, Stanley, Mark and Sherwood:
We remember you at this time of loss. May the precious memories come back often to comfort and bring heaven closer.
Love,
Rita for the Kochs##imported-begin##Rita Koch##imported-end##

April 10, 2007 at 10:47 PM

“ Rebecca, Lowell was very blessed to have your support and companionship through the years. May you be blessed by God's comfort and compassion in the days ahead.

Janice Pendergrass, Bryan College##imported-begin##Janice Pendergrass##imported-end##

April 10, 2007 at 11:32 AM

“ Rebecca: I just learned of Lowell's homegoing via e-mail and want to offer our sympathy and prayers for you and your family during this time. May God's grace lift you up and strengthen you.##imported-begin##Terry and Jan Balko##imported-end##

April 09, 2007 at 04:11 PM

“ Please convey to Mrs. Hoyt our love and our sorrow for her loss. I greatly appreciate her and Lowell, our occasional visits, and her faithful ministry to her husband. I know Lowell is with the Lord, and there is great comfort there, but I know she will miss him greatly.

Please convey to Mrs. Hoyt the reason why I will be unable to convey our condolences in person. My wife Betsy is out of town, and I am leaving today for a missions trip to Haiti. I learned only a few minutes ago that Lowell had gone to be with the Lord on the Bryan College email prayer list.

Grace and Peace,

Gary Phillips (and Betsy)##imported-begin##W. Gary PHillips##imported-end##

April 09, 2007 at 09:56 AM

“ Rebecca:
I wish to offer you my sincere sympathy at Lowell's passing to be with our Lord. I am so happy that you and Lowell had many happy years together.
May God comfort you now.

Bill and Lee Ketchersid##imported-begin##William Ketchersid##imported-end##

April 09, 2007 at 08:56 AM