

Mae Harrison

January 17, 1928 - October 16, 2015

Mae Harrison, age 87 of Cedine, passed away Friday morning, October 16, 2015 in Knoxville. She was born January 17, 1928 in Williamsburg, KY to the late Roy Stewart and Holda Cummings Stewart. She was also preceded in death by her husband Burlie Harrison.

Mae was a resident of Cedine since 1992 and lived previously in Ann Arbor, MI where she was property manager for a luxury apartment complex. After moving to Spring City, she was a volunteer at Cedine Bible Camp and was a member of First Baptist Church of Spring City.

She is survived by her son David (Janice) Harrison of Milan, MI, three daughters, Diane (Thom) Harris of Ypsilanti, MI, Danita (Danny) Galanopoulos of Loxley, AL and Donna (Rick) Guerra of Knoxville, one sister Jewel Kemplin of Sandy Hook, KY, seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mae will be held Monday morning at 11:00 a.m. at the Cedine Bible Camp in Spring City with Pastor Jimmy Logan officiating. The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. She will be laid to rest next to her husband in Cedine Cemetery.

Please share your memories of Mae on her on-line guest register at www.vanderwallfh.com.

The family is being cared for by the Vanderwall Funeral Home in Dayton.

“ We just received word that Mae had died in October. She was a dear lady. She was Doug's Mom's sister (half). We loved her and enjoyed the visits with her. She was an encouragement to Doug's Mom and to us as well. We will miss our once or twice a year visits on the phone. We are praying for the family and we treasure having known her and Burlie.

God bless you,
Doug and Judy Fraley and the family

“ Mae was a special lady. Enjoyed cooking with her when we used to have Wednesday night meals at church. She was beautiful, inside and out. Will miss her sweet smile but what a time she is having now! Love, Patty Cawood
