“Betty, were do I begin? First...Heaven is happier today. Margie was such an wonderful part of my life, she was the image of a mother and she set the bar for every other woman to reach as a mother. Her heart was always open to anyone that was blessed enough to be a part of her life. Her smile could light up 1,000 rooms and her eyes was a mirror to a soul that was pure. I am so happy that I was part of her life. My prayers and love is with you and your family today as you celebrate a life that deserves the best.

I Love You Debbie

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know that Margie will be greatly missed. I just wanted to share a comforting thought from the scriptures with you at Revelations chapter 21 verse 4 which tells us "He will wipe every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away". This is very comforting because it helps us to see that neither God nor His Son Jesus Christ wish to see anyone suffer death and that they promise to soon take this last enemy away and that soon all of our loved ones that have died will have the great hope of being resurrected to a beautiful paradise earth where there will be no suffering. I hope that this thought brings you comfort in this time of need Sincerely Andrea
