“ Remembering the Brown family as our neighbors in Warren in the 1960s. Max and Mary sitting with coffee cups under the shade of the willow tree. Daryl, Allan, Jenny, Julie, Tim, all before the move to Almont. I found a Christmas card from all of you in my parent's attic. Good memories of a young family.

“ Our first memories of Mary go back to 1983 when we moved to Dayton, and were treated to her wonderful voice at Services at St. Bridget's. She was a joy to know, and we treasure the friendship we enjoyed with her. She leaves a lasting legacy and a loving family behind. Our sincerest condolences go out to all her family.
