“ Braxton, You are deeply missed already. The family loved you as a brother, paw paw, and son. Thank You for being good to my family and loving my sister as you did. I will always remember the constant reminder you gave us all of how you may not be around another day due your illness anytime you were asked to committ to a time or day, and that was very brave of you. We just did not want to accept your reply although we all are dying daily. I could tell the illness was wearing on you but you continued to fight. I can rest now just knowing God has told you "The Battle is Over and YOU WON! Rest In Peace!!!!!!
